Tanner relishes the challenge of convincing the prickly journalist to take a chance on him, but when Evie gets the opportunity to grab a front page headline, the connection they forged is threatened. Matched up in May Afraid of trusting the wrong guy again, Bailey Cole swore off men for twelve months. When her first date in a year goes bust, hunky bartender Matt Kelso steps in to turn her evening around. Their spring fling heats up fast, but Bailey never planned on going from zero to sixty overnight. Will she let memories of her cheating ex permanently put the brakes on this perfect match? Jaded in June Samantha never imagined wanting to get serious about casual sex, but she's done holding out for a commitment. Aiden has been looking for a woman who isn't desperate to say I do, so when Sam agrees to be friends with benefits he's sure he's found a soul mate. Will a no-strings-attached summer romance be the answer, or will it just leave them both longing for a love that will last forever?.
