Not illustrated. 1901 Excerpt: .All were short, with flat, steeply-inclined, occiputs. The one figured has the cephalic index o-91. Three skulls sent from Lima, two of which belonged to complete mummies, on the other hand, are dolichocephalic, that figured having an index of 076. In conclusion, Retzius remarks, p. 98: -- In brief, the American peoples in general may, like the nations of the old world, be divided into two principal groups, into brachycephali and dolichocephali. To unite these forms under one group, as was formerly done with the Slavonians and Germans, for example, on grounds of philological affinity, is to stray beyond the region of safe natural history fact. Just as in the Old World, the people belonging to these two classes, seem, in many localities, to have lived in small societies scattered among one another; while, in others, they were more sharply separated into larger and usually inimical nations, of which sometimes the one and sometimes the other had the upper hand. I have, indeed, received a very long and depressed skull of peculiar form, said to come from Magalhaen s land; but for the present I hold its origin to be uncertain. Subsequently I have learned from Fitzroy and Darwin s Voyage that even the inhabitants of Tierra del Fuego present the same brachycephalic form as the other Puelches, whence I conclude that this form predominates in the whole southern part of South America. The brachycephalic tribes in America form an almost uninterrupted series through the whole...
