I could not see over them, and get my ears snapped for it, too; and the high, winding stairs to the old box-pulpit with a sounding-board overhead, very much like a big umbrella to an express wagon nowadays! And how it would shake when the Bible was pounded in the days of the Rev. Noah Crane! I always had him associated with Noahs Ark, because of his age and venerable appearance and name. He had his hearers all under conviction, he used to say, when he lived in Newark and preached to the spirits in prison (the penitentiary). After Mr. Crane came Mr. Wyckoff. He used to have the children come to his house Saturday afternoon, and to hold a meeting with them. The iirst time I went, he read about Josiah and talked about him. He began to serve the Lord when he was eight years old. That was the beginning of my religious impre. -sions. I think I was between eight and nine, then, and I thought going home, well, I am as old as he was, how can I serve the Lord And from that time I was the subject of very deep impressions. And I believe in the early conversion of children, and Spurgeon advocates early conversions. Dear, good Mr. Dayton lies back of the church. I stood beside the open grave as he was lowered, and the choir sang: Unveil thy bosom, faithful tomb; Take this new treasure to thy trust....
