Government Accountability Office, 2005 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)61763946 Subject: Medicare -- Claims administration. Excerpt: . . . CMSs plan provides a clear discussion of the reasons for implementing CMSs Plan Provides contracting reform, including the restrictions and weaknesses in the Useful Information about current system, as shown in table 1. The plan also recognizes the benefits Some Aspects of of improving Medicare contracting for beneficiaries and providers, such as Implementation providing a single point of contact for providers claims-related inquiries. Table 1: CMSs Analysis of Restrictions or Weaknesses in Medicare Claims Administration Contracting and Their Associated Effects Restriction or weakness in current system Effects of current restriction or weakness Lack of full and open competition CMS lacks the flexibility to choose qualified organizations to process Medicare claims through full and open competition. Provider institutions, such as hospitals, nominate fiscal intermediaries to process Part A claims, which limits CMSs ability to manage the program effectively. The Secretary of HHS is required, by law, to choose Part B carriers from health insurers or similar companies and did not have to compete these contracts. Separate processing of Part A and Part B Part A and Part B claims are generally processed by separate claims administration claims contractors and claims processing systems. For example, a beneficiary with a hospital stay followed by home health care will have hospital and some home health claims paid by a fiscal intermediary, while other home health and physician claims will be paid by a carrier. This division of responsibilities for claims payment sometimes makes it difficult for beneficiaries and providers to have their questions answered quickly. Providers also face increased expenses due to separate processing and are...
