

We Saw Lincoln Shot: One Hundred Eyewitness Accounts (Paperback)

By Timothy S. Good

University Press of Mississippi, United States, 1996. Paperback. Book Condition: New. New.. 218 x 155 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. On the evening of April 14, 1865, when President Abraham Lincoln was assassinated in Ford s Theatre, an entire audience was witness to the tragedy. From diaries, letters, depositions, affidavits, and periodicals, here is a collection of accounts from a variety of theatergoers--who by chance saw one of the truly pivotal events in U.S. history. Providing minute first-hand details recorded over a span of ninety years, We Saw Lincoln Shot explores an event that will forever be the subject of debate and controversy. I was present at the theater and saw it all, said Samuel Koontz. In fact, I was only about fifteen feet from the President when he was shot, although he was in a private box in the theater. In a letter to his parent, Jason S. Knox wrote, Dear Father, it is with sad feeling that I take up my pen and address you. Last Friday night at ten o clock, I witnessed the saddest tragedy ever enacted in this country. Notwithstanding my promise to you not to visit the theater, I could not resist...
