The El Pensamiento was a ship loaded t the gunnels with treasure. The treasure belonged t Sir Francis Mollinson of Scotland. It was a hoard of Viking treasures hed discovered n it made him a very rich man. He was afraid though bandits was gonna steal his treasure so he had the El Pensamiento bring it down t Cartagena in Colombia, South America. From there he was takin it t an estate hed bought in the highlands of Colombia. He had a hundert of the finest Scottish soldiers with him when he headed fer them highlands n Sir Mollinson n the soldiers n the treasure disappeared right off the face of the earth. Of course ya know thats the kind of thing that gets Sam fired up dont ya He was bettin we could find that treasure n I shore wasnt takin any bets against it. We asked Dr. Jack Ford t join us n him n his team jumped at the chance. He dint know it when we asked him but we was planning t give him a share of the treasure it we ever found it. When we got t Cartagena we discovered that estate Sir Mollinson had bought was right in the middle of cannibal country. Not only that we was gonna have t fight our way through hostile savages just t get t that cannibal country. Get yerself ready fer some mighty hard jungle travel cause we have a lot of it t get through t get t them highlands. Shore glad yer comin along. Gramps This item ships from La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
