Now soldiers, listen to my story, For I have something to relate, About the gallant twenty-second, That left my own, my native State. Twas 62, month of September, That she did call each noble son, To boldly rally to the rescue, For the defense of Washington. Chorus. - And we said we are one in this contest, We are bound to help our brothers now in arms, Though our wives and our children we leave sighing, They must not deter us by their charms. We started the second of October, Nine hundred stout and hearty men, The rain was beating on the pavement, And the mud it covered every shin. The wife was parting with her husband, The mother sighing for her son, The sweetheart bid adieu her loved one, All saying they never will come home. Chorus. - But the boat lay at the wharf waiting, And our brothers they are waiting in the field, And the rain still pattered on the pavement, And Heaven was the soldier s only shield.
