Parsons who said, I believe in the existence of Almighty God who created and governs the whole world. That was the opening sentence of Webster s confession of faith which he sent to his old pastor, Mr. Worcester. Let us, as we have met here today, invoke that Almighty Power in which he believed. One comes to us today from the Elms Farm, which was Webster s. I ask him to express in words the thoughts which are in the minds of all - the Reverend Rufus P. Gardner. Invocation By Rev. Rufus P. Gardner. Let us unite in prayer. O Lord, Our God, we believe it is very fitting, indeed, that we should look to Thee upon this occasion and remember that not only our fathers could trust in Thee but that it is well for the sons and daughters to rely upon the same Divine Power. And so at this time with that confession of faith in our thought that has already been expressed we bow down and acknowledge our dependence upon Almighty God. We are glad as we gather here in honor of one who was, indeed, of great honor to our state and to our nation, that at one time being asked what he considered to be the greatest thought that could possibly fall from human lips or the greatest obligation under which man was placed to the Almighty, he said that it...
